Wakefield High School

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Four years ago I told you how quickly your high school years would pass. Understandably, most of you viewed the four year journey as an eternity. With graduation having arrived, I congratulate you on your growth and maturity and your perseverance to meet your goals both in and out of the classroom.

It is said that high school days are the best days of your life. Don't believe it! You are now about to embark on the best years of your life. The independence you so much yearned for has arrived. Go into the world and utilize your knowledge and skills to create a better and more understanding world for all with whom you come into contact. Honor those who have made it possible for you to develop into responsible individuals. Love your parents and guardians and work hard to make the next generation supportive of the importance of learning and the benefits of peace.

May your future journeys be your greatest accomplishments.

...I loved growing up in Wakefield- playing soccer, walking the lake, exploring the woods, and running amuck with my friends. Making the transition from being in by sundown to driving around in cars til midnight has been exciting... Sometimes I think Wakefield is stuck in a bizarre time warp and that my home town is perpetually mired in 1952 as there is still an old-fashioned ice cream shop everyone knows everyone, there are numerous town hall cars and the football stands are payless zone.
I thank you for...

High school is a rather harsh awaken isn't it? In the 4 years I've been her developed a cynic attitude and a loss faith. On a high note I realize not to co on others because they can never truly h you thus giving me individuality an realized how foolish I was and how foo others still are. I've gained knowledge individuality and lost foolish beliefs childish idiocy. All in all it was a nice r that has falsely prepared me for the cru

I can't believe it, High School's actually over. The 4 years went by real fast, but it was fun. So many good times with all my friends - you know who you are - at the dances and spending aimless hours doing nothing together. Dancing at DSW for 14 years
- Disney '98, danced in the Magic Kingdom, NYC, and Las Vegas. Foreign Language Club for 3 years, treasurer for 2 years. Finally, thanks to my family, mom, dad, and Kim, you've helped me through a lot - I love you guys. Good Luck 2001!

What's up Class of 2001? It's been a fun four years, but now its time to move on. Time to get out of this town and see what we're really made of. Hope everyone has an awesome time in college, or whatever you're doing. Thank you so much to the teachers that made all this possible. I want to give a shout out to MC, CM, AS, RD, DG, PK, and JO. Perfect Bond

Everyone around me was crying, dancing, hugging, and singing. There were tears in my eyes as I looked around at this scene. I saw people who I had created so many memories with and with whom I had become best friends. We were all listening to our class song play as we walked around that stage as a class for the last time. With our costumes still on, our makeup still covering our faces, and our hair still done, we all felt a special bond. It was the culmination of weeks of planning, weeks of stress, and weeks of sleepless nights for so many people. The product of all this work was two nights of perfection. A whole senior class had come together to create an incredible performance. Not only was the senior show successful, but it was also one of the most enjoyable times of my life.

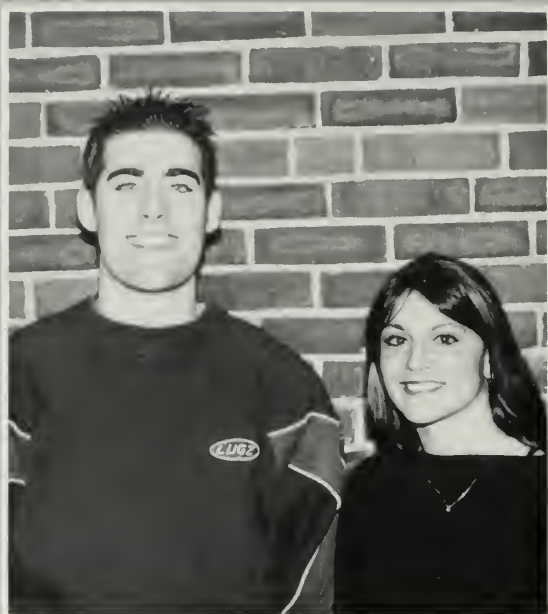

As I stood on stage just before the musical was about to begin on the last night, I looked around. I saw eighty of my peers all dressed in clothes from the 1950's, with makeup on, and gel in their hair. Guys who would not be caught saying the word 'theater' were focusing and getting into character. Girls who were always chatting and gossiping were only concentrating on the play. As the lights went off and the curtain opened, I felt a magical feeling. I was no longer on a stage in Wakefield, Massachusetts. We were all at Rydell High. We were not performing for an audience; we were immersing ourselves into another world. We were taking this journey together and none of us would ever forget the feelings we felt during those two hours. All the work that had gone into making it possible for this to happen was just part of the memory. The main part that connected us all was the imaginary world of Rydell High. We would always be able to go to that fictional place where everything was perfect and exciting.

As we finished the play and came out for curtain call, we all sang "We'll always be together." We truly will always be together; we always will have that special link. Our class became infinitely close that night. I could not have asked for anything more.

Athletics

Field Hockey

The 2000 field hockey team, led by captains Cara D'Addario, Liz Labriola and Julie Waitt, experienced a season of ups and downs. The defense was powered by seniors Lisa Pagliuca, Amanda Seely, and Michelle Curley, while Julie Waitt was strong in goal. Lisa McDonough and Leah Giambarressi at link, along with forwards Katelin Crocker, Cara D'Addario, Liz Labriola, and Keri Davis provided some strong points of the season. Forwards Cara D'Addario and Keri Davis were named All-Stars. Never forget fun times at camp, Halloween practice, nights out with the team, friendships made. Miss you seniors!

Captains Cara D'Addario, Julie Waitt and Liz Labriola

Pom Pons

This year's captains were Tina Cersosimo, Danielle King and Liz LaSpina. It's the crazy Pom girls bustin' through! Always remember camp 2000: the Brittney saga begins "row, row, row . . .", 1st place Home Routine, stealing balloons for the balloon game, smile! We'll never forget the reason that kept us laughing: WHAT?! You don't know "Dear Wakefield High!", ding, ding, Danielle's "beef" meetings, bus rides, salad?, psych pumpkin night, "who stole the dogs?" cookies anyone? Hows that music sounding? Good luck to the graduating seniors: Melissa, Courtney, Brooke, Tina, and Liz. Kudos on an awesome season! Good luck next year! We'll never forget you!

Captains Danielle King, Tina Cersosimo and Liz LaSpina

Boys Soccer

The 2000 Boys Soccer team was led by captains Steve DeBenedictus, Andy Russell, Brian Eriksen and Tyler Sheehan. While the teams record was 4-10-4, they still managed to pull off @+!?!* Coach Kelly was talking about, especially during their last game against Melrose. Two seniors, Kevin Leahy and Brian McNeill were named All-Stars.

Captains Andy Russell, Brian Eriksen, Steve DeBenedictus and Tyler Sheehan

Girls Soccer

Captains Julia Hineman and Kristen Edwards

Cheerleading

The 2000-2001 season was led by captains Stephanie Frangules, Kristal Georgio, Michelle Carter, and Lisa McDonough. The team united through pasta parties, TPing, psych bags, and making posters. After cheering for football and soccer, the fall team participated in the Middlesex League Cheerleading Exhibition, the Woburn High School Cheerleading competition, and the pep rally for the football team. The winter cheerleaders led the fans at the basketball and hockey games. Seniors Liz Rossicone, Laura Roberto, Tina Guardia, Jill Berggren, Marla Roach and Kaitlyn Crocker will be missed. Good luck to the 2001-2002 cheerleaders!

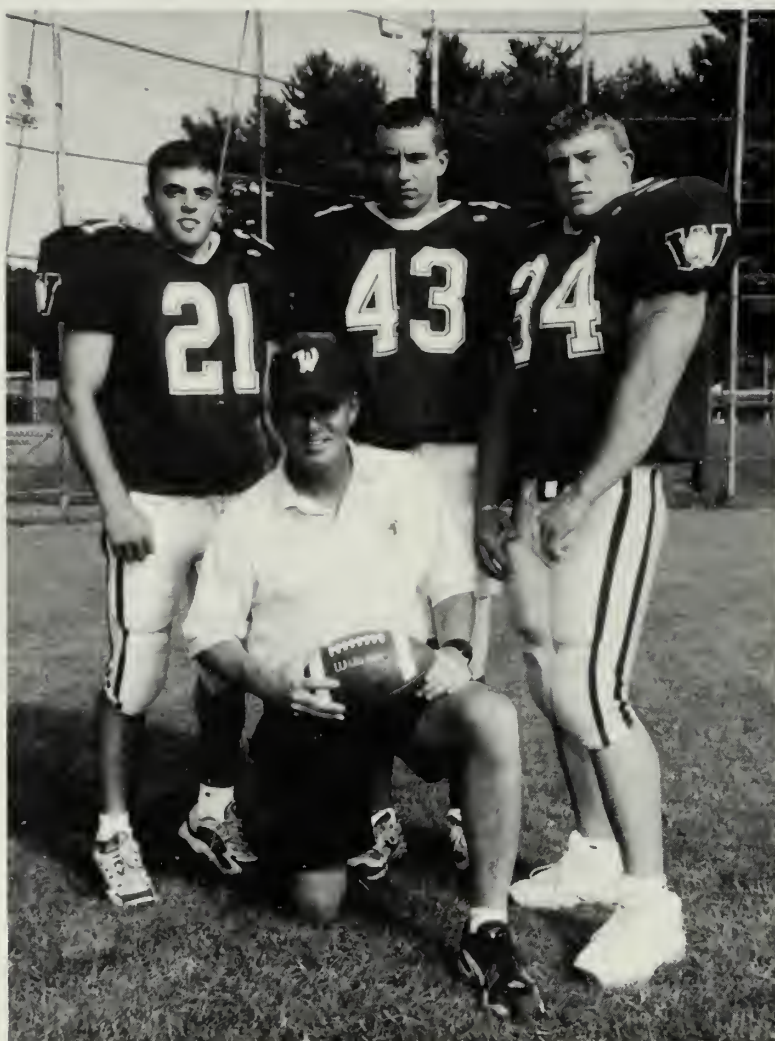

Golf

The golf team was led by Captain Dan D'Onofrio, and finished the season with a record of 2-8. Dan D'Onofrio and Tommy McGuire were named League All-Stars. The team will remember fall days at the Colonial and Sunday night meetings with Coach Bisso. The seniors wish next year's team good luck.

Captains Mark Sullivan, Nathan Wood, and Dustin Taylor

Football

This year's football team was led by captains Nathan Wood, Mark Sullivan, and Dustin Taylor. The team finished with a stellar record of 8-1-1, a sportsmanship award from the MIAA and 11 All-Stars. The team's win over Reading, 27-7, was by far the team's best game, and the Thanksgiving day win over Melrose, 34-14, was the perfect ending to an excellent season. The prospects for next year's team are good, with nine returning starters and two returning all-stars. Congratulations to the football team! "It's a glorious day for America, gentlemen . . ."

Boys Cross Country

The 2000 Boys Cross Country team was led by captains Jeff Dolan, Vinny Capalupo, and Dan Giacalone. While their record was 2-7, the team had many successful moments and a great league meet. The State meet and running in the mud will be remembered. The seniors wish next year's team good luck.

Captains Dan Giacalone, Vinny Capalupo and Jeff Dolan.

Girls Cross Country

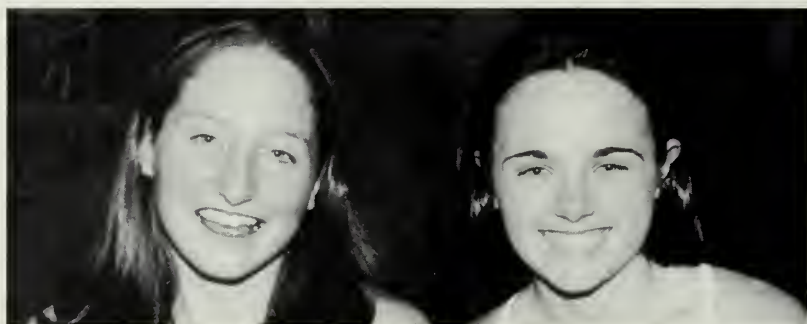

This year's girls cross country team was led by captains Colleen Curran and Keri Person. The team ended the season with a 7-2 record and 3 runners who finished in the top 14 at League Meet. Junior Marybeth McLaughlin was named a League All-Star. The team will have 5 returning runners next year, and the seniors wish next years team good luck!

Captains Colleen Curran and Keri Person

Swimming

The girls swim team had an excellent season this year. The team was led by captains Julie Bowen and Jan Iacapucci, and concluded with a record of 5-4. The team also succeeded in sending two relay teams to states, two swimmers to sectionals, and Jen Iacapucci to States. The team certainly holds promise for next year's season with many returning talents. Remember trips to Prince and the car wash, and good luck to next year's team!

Captains Jan Iacapucci and Julie Bowen

Gymnastics

This season was a very successful one for the Wakefield High School Gymnastics Team, finishing 4-2 in the Middlesex League and 6-3 overall. Captains Lisa Pagliuca and Stacy Philbrook led the team as it succeeded in accomplishing its greatest goal-breaking 130. At the league meet the team scored 131, which was an excellent end to the season. Melissa Berys and Angela Joly placed individually at the league meet, and a talented freshman class returning next season means next year's team is promising. The seniors will remember this season as the best and owe it to the team.

Wrestling

The Warrior matmen were led by quad-captains Dylan Conn (Middlesex League Champ 160), Micah Canestaro (League Champ 130) Steve Burke (3rd place in League 119), and Andy Brown (League Champ 215). The Warriors had an overall record of 18-6 and placed 3rd in the league and 8th in the state. Many accomplishments were made including head coach Ross Iches receiving his 100th win, and quad captain Dylan Conn setting a new record for most career wins, beating the old record of 134. Other top finishes in the Middlesex League would be Marc Assini (3rd), Tim Roblee (3rd), John Agri (4th), Senior Dave Laspina placed 4th in the Anthony Lisitons Memory tournament at the heavyweigh class.

Captains Andy Brown, Dylan Conn, Micah Canestaro and Steve Burke

Boys' Hockey

This year's hockey team was led by captain Pat Doherty and assistant captain Jason Brooks. The season starting out as a promising one with a close, 3-2 loss to Winchester during which everyone played very well. Despite the 3-13-4 season record, the team finished strong, beaten for the last four games with a 1-0-3 record.

Girls Indoor Track

The 2000-2001 Indoor Girl's Track Team, coached by James Duff, completed a successful season with a winning record of 7-2. Led by captains Colleen Curran, Renee Botticelli, Jill Berggren and Julia Hincman, the girls placed 3rd behind Levington and Reading in the extremely competitive Middlesex League. Repeating last year's performance at the Class C State Relays, Wakefield placed second behind Natick. Wakefield pulled together and worked extremely hard to place in six events during the state relays racking up 47 points, one point shy of Natick's 98 points. The 4x800 team, the 4x200 team and Julia Hincman, running the one-mile, attended the All-State Meet. None of the relay teams placed; however, all teams ran well, and Julia Hincman set a new WHS one-mile record and is the 2001 All-State Mile Champion. Overall, the WHS girl's track team had a successful and fun season! Good luck next year, girls! Have fun!

Boys Indoor Track

This year the team had a respectable season. With captains Jon McCarthy, Jeff Dolan, Mark Sullivan, and Steve Buonopane leading the way, the boys broke even. The relay team finished in the top four at the state relays at the Reggie Lewis Center in Boston. At this year's break-up banquet, awards were given out to Jon McCarthy, Andy Russell, Nick Kosack, Anthony Spizuoco, Ryan Sheehan, Ron DiPerri, Dan Giacalone, and Ken Duratti. Coach DiComandrea saw his 40+ season at Wakefield High and will be assistant coach for this year's outdoor season. Congratulations to this year's team and good luck to next year's!

Boys Basketball

The Boys Varsity Basketball team, after a season of many ups and downs, finished with a record of 7-13. It was a season with many injuries, but they did not take away from the overall atmosphere of teamwork and sportsmanship. Tri captains were Chris Terfry, Mark Giusto, and Ryan Conley.

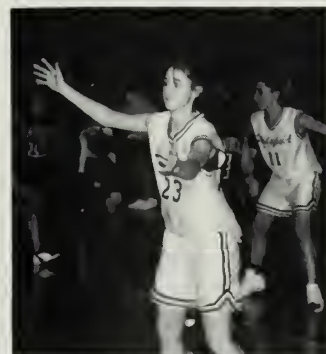

Girls Basketball

This year has been memorable for the Wakefield Girls Basketball Team. The season ended with an unfortunate loss to Melrose in the tournament, leaving the Lady Warriors with a record of 12-9. The team was led by senior captains Amy Relihan and Liz Labriola. Seven seniors played on the team this year, all of whom played together since sixth grade. Team unity, especially among the seniors, powered the Lady Warriors.

Captains Liz Labriola and Amy Relihan

Girls Ice Hockey

This season we went 10-5, which brought us to the State Tournament. This has a great accomplishment for a first-year varsity team. We would like to thank our coaches, P. Stanton, R. Nardone, and C. Doren for all of their hard work and dedication throughout the season.

Captains Kristin Bernier and Emily Taylor

ADAM ODACHOWSKI

Adam,

Your graduation from high school is one of many major life experiences you will encounter and can be summarized in two words, change and effort.

With change, the road to success is always under construction. With effort, for every person who climbs the ladder of success, there are a half dozen waiting for the elevator.

We will always stand by you in whichever path you take.

Love and good luck,
Mom, Dad and Katie

"AFFIRM IT, VISUALIZE IT, BELIEVE IT"
"AND IT WILL ACTUALIZE ITSELF"

My Peanut after all these years where do I start and when do I stop. You have grown so fast before my eyes I can't believe how time flies. I can't believe it is Graduation time. I want to thank you for all the Love, Memories, Laughter, Happiness, Fun, Tears of Joy and some of sadness, we have shared it all. We have really had such great times. I can't wait to see what the future holds for you and all the new memories we will have. You'll never know what you have given me. There has never been a day gone by that you have not put a smile of happiness on my face. You have always made me so happy and proud of you and the choices & decisions you have made. Some have been tough decisions, but no matter what you have had to conquer you found some way to look at the positive side of it. Continue thinking and looking positive no matter whatever happens in your life. Believe in yourself and your feelings. Follow your beliefs and dreams. Remember there is always a reason for everything. Keep smiling & stay as you are Pam and you will go far. Remember U! R the only U!. There are no limits for you Reach For The Stars. I'll always be there for you Pam you'll never be alone. No matter if distance and miles are between us. Remember you can always lean on me & ask me anything, whether it be large or small. I'll try to guide and help you, but the decision is up to you & I will support whatever decisions you make. I wish you more than the best in your life, college & all the changes, challenges & obstacles you'll have as you grow. Words can't say how I feel but you know how much I Love, Care & Respect You. One thing I hope when you have a child or children they bring you as much happiness & joy as you have given me. I wish you nothing but Love, Happiness & Success in you life. Always remember the poem you wrote "To Waste Time". You know I could go on but I won't. There has always been a rope I have held on to, letting it go little by little and always trying to pull it back. But know it is time to pass it on to you. It is my time to let go & let you spread your wings.

Thanks for being such a wonderful daughter.

I LUV YOU PEANUT

Mike says thanks Sam. Had a lot of good times & there will be a lot more. Good luck in the Future. Love you little sister.
